

PUTTING THE FUN BACK
INTO LEARNING!

Dear Parents and guardians

G10 GCSE Media Studies

This month students are preparing for their Media Mock GCSE exam. They are currently familiarising themselves with the format of the exam, and researching and creating their original concept for a serial drama. They will be utilising the knowledge and skills garnered from the previous term to help guide this pitch. It is imperative that students are viewing and analysing a myriad of disparate TV dramas in order to supplement their ideas. The mock that they are doing this month is a direct facsimile of their exam in June. Therefore, the greater effort put in for the mock exam the greater the chances of success in June.
