

PUTTING THE FUN BACK
INTO LEARNING!

Dear Parents and guardians

G10 GCSE Media Studies

Students are continuing with their study of TV drama series which is the topic of the external assessment in June. This month they will be focusing on character arcs throughout a series. As well as analysing different character arcs, students will be using this research to plan ideas for their own comedy drama series. To demonstrate their understanding of the genre students will be writing sections of scripts as well as pitches for production companies.
